

CARDINHAM GARDENING CLUB
MINUTES of the meeting held on Thursday 28th June 2007
at The Old School House

Present: David, Peter, Richard, Mick, Loveday, Libby, Sue.

Apologies: Midge, Margaret, Gill.

Minutes of the meeting held on 26th February 2007 read and agreed. Signed by Libby.

Matters Arising

Malvern Trip: 32 members and friends joined the trip. Thanks to Loveday for organising it all.

Tubs (Parish Hall): Loveday has done the tubs, but hasn't yet received the bill for the new tubs.

Hall Committee: Lesley Martin is representing the Gardening Club on that Committee.

Cornwall Gardens Trust: membership has increased by 100% to £25. Decided we will not renew our membership next year.

RHS Newsletter has been distributed amongst the Committee.

Visit to Burcoose and the Walk on Bodmin Moor were both well attended and enjoyed.

Finance

We have £783 in the bank with the tubs still to pay for. Also outstanding £50 to pay George Kestell and £30 profit on the Malvern trip.

Cider & Pasty Supper

David & Ann Flynn's garden at Wooda from 6.30pm then on to Pinsla, and pasties, thanks to Clare and Mark Woodbine. Pasties from Betty Scott in Launceston costing £1.50 each. Decided to charge £2 per person and give a donation to Pinsla. Order 70 pasties plus 5 veggies. Peter to get the cider, Sue to get Strongbow, orange juice, cups etc.

Winchester Growers trip

Will need to know numbers in advance.

Tips & Snips Meeting

Harriet Steed had agreed to be one of the 'experts'. Richard to invite Terry and Loveday to invite Ray to talk for 10 minutes. David could talk about tree ferns. Gill could ask Peter Borlase and Libby would speak to Clare Woodbine to see if they could do a 10 minute talk. Libby to check with Midge if she had anyone else lined up. Midge to bring cheese & biscuits and members to be invited to bring their own wine.

Newsletter

Sue to send a newsletter by email to those whose addresses we have and post to others, with details for next few meetings.

Expenses

David proposed, Peter seconded - pay £15 expenses to Libby, Loveday & Sue.

Thanks to Libby for providing wine and cake. Meeting closed at 8.45pm.
